Cotumbus, O., II.—Socond day of the grand resument of ex-soldiers and sailors. President Hayes, Gen. Sherman and party arrived at 6 o'clock this morning from Washington, and were met at the depot by an eccort, cossisting of United States troops, stationed at Columbus garrisos, ex-Soldiers' Association, Governor's Goard, Columbus cadest and other places. The precession proceeded to the residence of Dr. C. B. Fullerton, where President Hayes will be entertained, and to the residence of T. Ewing Miller, where Gen. Sherman and Geo. Pos have been saigned. The camp grounds present a very preity appearance, being arranged in streets and named from right to left. Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, McPherson, Hayes, Gilmore, McCook, McDowell and Ammen. Othio Soldier's and railors' tents are rapidly filling up, 1,500 men having been assigned quarters yesterday, with the demand greatly increasing. At the first at hall in the fair ground, tattered large containing history in their mothers on the north side read: "To Preserve the Union, Ohio Furnished 319,654 Men." while "Propatrio Magi Gloria ert, Chio Mourns for 24,531 dead," appears on the other side.

Washington, H.—The report of Col. Mendall, engineer in charge of river and harbor improvements in California, of the work completed during the year ending June 30, 1880, together with an outline of work in computation for the ensuing year, has been received at the war department. In regard to Oakian harbor improvements for the ensuing year, the report says that the first step in continuing the improvements will be to raise the north jetty about four feet, or up to high water mark, for a distance of 6,400 feet, briginning at the shore south of the jetty also be raised to high water mark for a distance of 6,400 feet, briginning at the shore south of the jetty also be raised to high water mark for a distance of 7,750 feet. It is also proposed to widen the channel by dredging to 300 feet. The original estimate for this work was in round numbers, $1,335,000, and $415,000 has thus far been appropristed, and $202,001 have been expended, leaving $153,000 and $150,000 can be profitably expended on the work during the first state of the first state of the first state of the first step in the first step
